STUDYING: Bachelor's in Computer Science, University of Manitoba, Canada

WHY SHE WENT

"Moving abroad is more like a self-journey than just studies and a degree. One can mix and match subjects of interest in a semester within flexible time slots. You could be majoring in a certain field but have all the freedom to take up anything of interest"

APPLYING ABROAD
A READY RECKONER

RESEARCH, RESEARCH, AND MORE RESEARCH

- Check courses, universities and rankings, locations, alumni network, research opportunities, campus set-up, scholarships and funding
- Also, the eligibility criteria, timelines to apply, cost of the course and how to fund it, besides post-study work visa rules
- Students can check country-specific university websites they wish to apply to, which detail the entire process
- They can also approach study abroad platforms to guide them. Among the prominent ones are Leverage Edu, IDP Consultancy, Foreign Admits, iSchoolConnect, Yocket and Edwise International

START YOUR APPLICATION

- After shortlisting the course and university, work on the application. Besides personal details, you will be required to furnish academic records, IELTS and TOEFL scores, letters of recommendation from a teacher/professor, an SOP essay describing academic background, career goals, reasons for choosing a particular programme or university and any relevant experience or achievements, and a resume
- Stick to the deadlines for completion
- Focus on writing an impressive SOP essay. Universities look for authenticity and personal voice. A good essay should reflect a student's unique experiences and perspectives. Clarity, structure, coherence and grammar also matter

ON RECEIVING AN ACCEPTANCE LETTER

- Carefully check all the terms and conditions such as dates for accepting the admission offer letter or any refund or partial fee refund rules of the university if you're unable to join the programme later. Apply for your student visa, ready required paperwork for visa application

FINALISE STAY AND TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

- Check out available campus accommodations or shared rooms, dorms or homestays
- Research the tickets and look for deals and book on time and in advance
