ENTERTAINMENT

THE LUST QUARTET

Back after five years, Lust Stories' steamy second season was a long time coming

A maid (Amruta Subhash) and her employer (Tillotama Shome) are liberated by witnessing each other's sexual kinks. A sex-positive grandmother (Neena Gupta) directs her millennial granddaughter (Mrunal Thakur) to experience an orgasm before agreeing to an arranged marriage match. A former sex worker (Kajol) fails to save her son from giving in to the endless cycle of patriarchy and lust. Two ex-lovers (Vijay Varma, Tamannaah Bhatia) reunite only to weaponise their desires as a form of revenge.

Five years after Netflix premiered Lust Stories (2018), its first anthology of films investigating the contours of sex and desire in conservative Indian society, the streaming platform is back with a second instalment. Directed by Konkona Sen Sharma, R. Balki, Amit Ravindernath Sharma and

Role Play

ENTERTAINMENT

Maniesh Paul, everyone's go-to TV show presenter, reinvents himself with Rafuchakkar, his first outing as a lead actor in an OTT series

Maniesh Paul kicked off his career as an RJ and VJ, gradually segueing into hosting. A master of comic timing, he has hosted countless TV shows, but is best known for the reality dance show Jhalak Dikhhla Jaa. Paul the presenter may have overshadowed Paul the performer, but he has always wanted to make his mark as an actor. In fact, he made his Bollywood debut with Mickey Virus way back in 2013, but commercial success eluded that venture. Paul finally tasted success with Jugjugg Jeeyo (2022), where he appeared as the well-loved Gurpreet Sharma alongside Anil Kapoor.

Rafuchakkar, written by Arjun Singgh Baran and Kartik Nishandar, and directed by Ritam