CONGRESS WAR ROOMS

RAHUL'S CORE TEAM

The Gandhi scion's most trusted lieutenants. But even for them, (Priyanka excepted) communication is often one way

PRIYANKA GANDHI VADRA, 50

General secretary (GS) in-charge of UP

Led the party to its worst electoral performance in UP; was the brain behind making Navjot Sidhu Punjab Congress chief; has not contested an election

K.C. VENUGOPAL, 59

GS in-charge of organisation, Rajya Sabha member

The CWC member did not contest the 2019 Lok Sabha election; entered the upper house from Rajasthan

RANDEEP SINGH SURJEWALA, 54

GS in-charge of Karnataka, Communication

Was head of poll management for 2020 Bihar election–party performed abysmally. Lost the past two polls he contested

JAIRAM RAMESH, 67

Rajya Sabha member

Was AICC observer for Manipur–party tally dropped from 28 to five

AJAY MAKEN, 58

GS in-charge of Rajasthan

Was chairman of the screening committee for Punjab election where Congress was wiped out. Has lost three consecutive elections

AVINASH PANDEY, 63

GS in-charge of Jharkhand

Was chairman of screening committee for Uttarakhand where Congress lost a winnable election

JITENDRA SINGH, 50

GS in-charge of Assam

Failed to win state for Congress in 2021. Hasn't won an election since 2014

MANICKAM TAGORE, 46

AICC in-charge of Telangana. Lok Sabha MP from Tamil Nadu

PRAVEEN CHAKRAVARTY, 49

Chairman, AICC technology and data cell

THE TOP REBELS

Earlier the Group of 23 (G23), they are now down to 18 leaders. Seek organisational reforms and accountable leadership

GHULAM NABI AZAD, 73

Unofficial leader of the G23 rebels

Congress lost in UP (2017) and Haryana (2020) when he was in-charge

ANAND SHARMA, 69

Deputy leader of the Opposition in Rajya Sabha

Unlikely to be re-elected after his term expires in April

MANISH TEWARI, 56

Lok Sabha MP

Was part of committee that analysed the 2021 assembly poll losses

BHUPINDER SINGH HOODA, 74

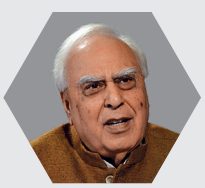

Opposition leader in Haryana Legislative Assembly

Offered a tough fight to BJP in 2019 Haryana assembly poll

SHASHI THAROOR, 66

Lok Sabha MP for the third consecutive time

KAPIL SIBAL, 73

Rajya Sabha member

Last won a Lok Sabha poll in 2009

PRITHVIRAJ CHAVAN, 76

Currently MLA from Karad (South) in Maharashtra