Famous Five

In a career that will mark a decade mark later this year, Alia Bhatt has consistently delivered hits

Gangubai Kathiawadi (2022)

Rs 122 crore

In her first collaboration with Sanjay Leela Bhansali, Alia gets a big, decorated canvas to showcase her range as she plays an aspiring actress-turned-prostitute-turned-brothel owner-turned-leader

2 States (2014)

Rs 101 crore

An adaptation of Chetan Bhagat's popular novel, the romantic comedy was Alia's first film to enter the Rs 100 crore club

Raazi (2018)

Rs 122 crore

The female-fronted film had Alia as a spy. This was the first film where the actor came into her own

Gully Boy (2019)

Rs 134 crore

Fiery, witty, caring, Alia is as riveting in this film as Ranveer Singh is

Badrinath Ki Dulhania (2017)

Rs 114 crore

After Humpty Sharma ki Dulhania (2014), Varun Dhawan and Alia came together to deliver yet another hit

SANJAY LEELA BHANSALI
Filmmaker to Film Companion

Every time I throw an ace at her, I get two aces thrown back at me. She is too special. I tell her 'You have the potential to go global and make India proud' version of the period action drama alone has earned Rs 106 crore in five days.

Alia was 20 when she first made an impression in her second film (as an adult actor)—the Imtiaz Ali-directed Highway—in 2012. She has done 13 other films since. And Raazi and Gangubai... are not her only films to breach the Rs 100 crore mark. 2 States [2014], a romantic comedy based on Chetan Bhagat's novel, was her first film to gross more than Rs 100 crore. In 2017, Badrinath Ki Dulhania, in which she plays a perky yet marriage-shy graduate opposite Varun Dhawan, delivered Rs 114 crore. Alia
