

Illustration by SIDDHANT JUMDE

CRYPTOCURRENCY

BACK TO THE CRYPT?

BY M.G. ARUN

For a newborn sector, finding a stable turf on which to grow can be a complicated affair when the world itself is in motion. Cryptocurrencies and the traditional economic system present exactly such a duality—paired in a difficult tango. Finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman's budget speech threw some mottled light on an area of darkness. Both the nascent