

The mHawk diesel and mStallion petrol engines are mated with a choice of 6-speed automatic or manual transmissions and various power outputs

Adaptive Cruise Control makes highway and city driving more convenient

Future Tech

POWER-PACKED POWERTRAINS

The XUV700 offers a choice of either petrol or diesel engine options, both of which pack ample go to match the show. The 2.0-litre turbocharged-petrol engine boasts of 200 thoroughbred stallions with 380Nm of torque to make the XUV700 move like no other in its class. The mHawk diesel engine is available in two power trims with upto 185 horsepower and upto a wholesome 450Nm of torque to conquer any terrain while a choice of 6-speed manual or automatic gearbox offers even more versatility for various driving requirements.

EXHILARATING ADRENOX

At the heart of the XUV700's intelligent connectivity suite, is the AdrenoX Connect system that offers various convenience features right at your finger tips. Remote locking and unlocking, turning on the air-conditioner on a hot day to pre-condition the car before driving, geofencing and numerous other connected tech is available from the convenience of your mobile phone.

ADVANCED DRIVER ASSISTANCE SYSTEMS

Previously only limited to high-end luxury cars, this vital safety system is now made accessible through the XUV700 without an exorbitant price tag. ADAS features a mix of cameras and radar-based sensors that give the XUV700 its own set of eyes and senses to make it aware of its surroundings thus keeping its occupants safe while even offering upto Level 2 autonomous driving

The new Mahindra 3D logo not only looks smart adorning the grille of the XUV700 but also hides sensors and cameras for ADAS features. AdrenoX offers a host of connected car tech and Amazon's Alexa for interactive command-based convenience functions