HASSAN MUSHRIF ALL SET TO MAKE MAHARASHTRA A MODEL FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT

Housing for rural poor, women empowerment and road network development, a three-tier scheme has been envisaged to facelift rural development in Maharashtra under the Mahavikas Aghadi regime.

Maharashtra Rural Development Minister Shri. Hassan Mushrif has set new goals to give a complete facelift to rural development through a three-tier system. The system emphasizes on developing road network, empowering rural women and creating houses for poor which will make the state Rural Development Ministry a model for the nation.

Mr Mushrif, who took charge of the ministry in January 2020, says, under the Chief Minister Gram Sadak Yojana (CMGSY) 10,000-km. road network worth Rs. 7500 is slated. CMGSY funds are used to uplift and strengthen rundown roads in the state. Funds worth Rs. 7500 crore have been earmarked, Rs. 3000 crore will be expended in 2022-23 and remaining Rs. 4500 crore will be spent in the next year.

Further, his ministry has already got sanction for the central government funds worth Rs. 2177 crore under the Pradhanmanrti Gram Sadak Yojana. Works for rural roads of 2925 kms have been approved under the scheme. The ministry has submitted a proposal for total 6, 550-km road network.

In the second tier of women empowerment, the Mahajeevika Abhiyan (livelihood mission) will be implemented in 2022-23 to provide sustainable livelihood for women. Started from the World Women's Day, the scheme will continue till the Independence Day of 2023. During the period women welfare related programmes of different ministries will be clubbed together in order to make sustainable livelihood available to women.

The baseline of the scheme is 'uplift a woman financially and the family will get elevated'. The scheme will provide state-wide markets for the products of women self-help groups (SHGs). In last two years Rs 4197 crore bank loans have been disbursed to these groups. In last 2 years Rs. 66 crore revolving funds were allotted to 44,108 women groups [13.69 lakh Families] Rs. 94 crore community investment funds have been allotted to 16, 376 groups. It is aimed at providing an annual income of Rs 1 lakh per household to SHG family, called as Lakhpati Didi.

In the third layer under Maha Aawas Abhiyan, shelter-less families will be provided own house. This scheme is in full swing and 4,25,000 houses have been built in first phase. The beneficiaries include 50,343 landless villagers. In case of lack of land multistoried structures will be built. Under the scheme 373 housing complexes and 620 Gharkul marts will be constructed. Bank loans and financial aids will also be provided these families.

Beautifying villages

Under the smart village scheme, now named R. R. Patil Beautiful Village Award scheme, reward price is Rs. 10 lakh at taluka level and Rs. 40 lakh at district level. Prize distribution ceremony will be held on the death anniversary of late Aaba (R. R.) Patil.

With a view to facilitating create more human resources and develop rural areas, the government has decided to generate funds worth Rs. 500 crore through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) till 2025.
