and it remains a key source of precedent in the Muslim world east of Iran.

The hallowed Muslim cemetery of Khuldabad, outside Aurangabad. A line engraving by an unknown English artist who visited the site c. 1860.