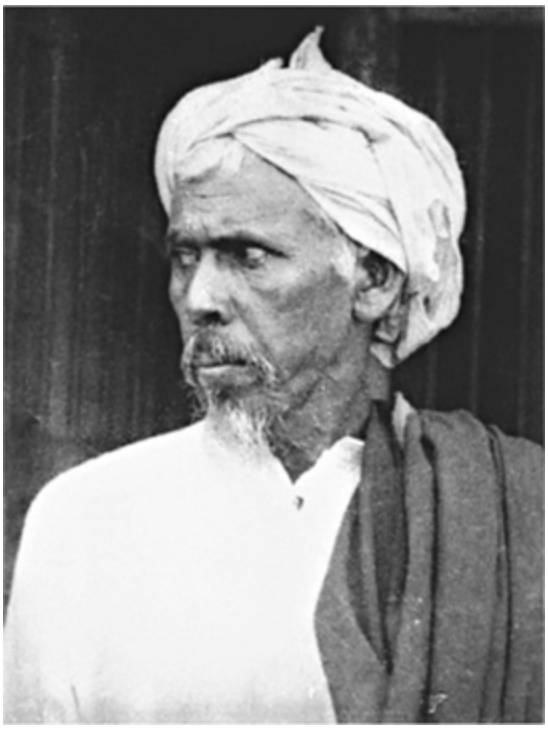
subsequently passed a resolution condemning the government’s attempt to minimise the crimes committed by the rebels, which it summarised in highly emotive terms:



The Mappila leader Haji Ali Musliyar, sentenced to death for treason and hanged in Coimbatore Jail on 17 February 1922.