counterparts in Europe, the tragedy being that they kept these advances to themselves.[14]

A postage stamp celebrating the rationalist and humanist Tamil reformer E. V. Ramasamy, better known as Periyar, whose Self-Respect Movement campaigned for the human rights of the depressed classes in South India.