12 According to Benjamin Rice's Mysore Gazetteer, Tipu destroyed eight thousand temples. Let us assume eight hundred as more realistic.

13 The invaluable contents of Tipu Sahib's library, consisting of some two thousand manuscripts acquired in the course of his father's and his own predations upon their neighbours, were divided between Cambridge and Oxford universities in Britain and the College of Fort William in Calcutta.

14 The full story is told in Charles Allen, op. cit.
