him to assassinate Abu'l Fazl. Salim made Bir Singh Deo Raja of Orchha after he became Padshah Jahangir.

Chand Sultan: Born into the Nizam Shahi dynasty of Ahmadnagar, Chand Sultan married the sultan of Bijapur, Ali Adil Shah. After the death of her husband, ruled as regent of Bijapur before returning to Ahmadnagar, to rule as regent in her hometown. She tried to create an alliance to face the Mughal forces but was eventually murdered by her own disaffected noblemen.

Rani Durgavati: Queen of Gondwana. Ruled as regent for her minor son for many years. Defeated by the Mughals in battle and committed suicide.

Hemu: Styled Raja Vikramaditya, prime minister of Adil Shah Sur. Mounted a feisty challenge for the throne of Delhi. Captured after the Second Battle of Panipat. Killed by Bairam Khan and possibly Akbar.

Rana Pratap: Ruler of Mewar. Was defeated by Mughal forces led by Kuar Man Singh at the Battle of Haldighati. Resisted the Mughals till the end of his life.

JESUITS

Anthony Monserrate and Rudolf Acquaviva: Part of the First Jesuit Mission. They tried for many years to convert Akbar to Christianity, and finally left disappointed. They left behind their observations on Akbar and the Mughal court and influenced the art of Hindustan.

THE CLERGY (ULEMA)

Maulana Abdullah Sultanpuri: Shaikh al-Islam, makhdum ul-mulk. Humiliated during the ibadat khana discussions. Supported Mirza Hakim's rebellion and was banished to Mecca by Akbar. Shaikh Abd un-Nabi: Sadr us-sudur. Akbar was initially in thrall to the sadr, later disenchanted by his mediocrity. He supported Mirza Hakim's rebellion and was banished to Mecca by Akbar.

Shaikh Mustafa Gujarati: A Mahdavi whose dairah was plundered during the Gujarat campaign. He was taken to Ahmedabad where he was tortured and questioned by the Mughal courtiers.