SELECT CHRONOLOGY OF MAJOR EVENTS

1504: Babur conquers Kabul and establishes his capital there.

1526: First Battle of Panipat. Babur defeats the Lodis. Ibrahim Lodi is killed in battle.

1530: Babur dies after appointing his eldest son, Humayun, as his heir. Humayun ascends the throne.

1539: Battle of Chausa between Humayun and Sher Shah Sur. The Sur army emerges victorious over the Mughals.

1540: Sher Shah Sur establishes the Sur Empire.

1541: Humayun marries Hamida Banu Begum.

15 October 1542: Hamida Banu gives birth to Akbar, future Padshah of Hindustan, at Umerkot, in the palace of Rana Prasad. His milk mothers include Maham Anaga and Jiji Anaga.

July 1543: Humayun marches towards Kandahar, loses Hindustan. Flees to Safavid Persia with Hamida Banu Begum (Maryam Makani).

1543–44: Akbar is left behind in Kandahar in the care of Askari's wife, Sultanam Begum.

1544: Humayun marches back towards Kandahar. Akbar is sent back to Kabul, where he is reunited with the elderly Khanzada Begum, elder sister of Babur.

1545: Sher Shah Sur dies.

1553: Kamran is captured and blinded. He dies three years later in Mecca.

1553: Muhammad Hakim, or Mirza Hakim, is born to Humayun's new wife, Mah-chuchak Begum. A few months later, Akbar is given a new ataliq, Munim Khan.

23 July 1555: Sikandar Shah is defeated at the Battle of Sirhind and Humayun reconquers Hindustan.