always the work of one of just six artists, specialists in the painting of ‘chehra’, or the face, and they include the artists Madhu, Kesu, Miskin, Basawan, and Nanha. These beguiling portraits of this elusive emperor still mesmerize across five centuries.

---

*The Perfect Man.

*Eighteenth-century Persian biography by Shamsuddaula Shah Nawaz Khan of important Mughal notables.

† A seventeenth-century account by Mutamad Khan of the history of the Timurid dynasty until the accession of Shah Jahan.

*The miniatures of the second volume of the Akbarnama are lost.