

This country is very old and has a proud history. Its policies should be made as per our needs, not adopted from countries with 2-3 crore population

Before 2014, 60 crore people had never dared to dream. Modiji has lit hope in them, and created aspiration in their mind that when India celebrates a century of Independence, it'll be No. 1 in every field

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- People, not politicians, decide the narrative in a democracy
- The whole world is talking of a slowdown. India has moved ahead due to the PM's policies
- G20 is an opportunity for the world to see the changes happening in India
- Some issues are above politics. No one should comment on India's leaders or their statements abroad
- India wants friendship with the whole world but won't tolerate encroachment on its borders

When Joshiji and Modiji went to unfurl the flag at Lal Chowk (in 1992), they had to be airlifted and escorted by army troops. Today, Rahul Gandhi can do the same without any special security

You ask about the timing of the I-T raid on BBC. Let me ask you about the timing of the documentary: why show a 2002 incident in 2023, a year before the 2024 election?
