men Voters

centric schemes to win their favour and vote

ANI

THE CM'S BAG OF GOODIES

More than 40 women-centric schemes are currently running in MP and the Rs 1.03 lakh crore allocation for them is about a third of this year's state budget. The number of beneficiaries is estimated to be around 10 million

LADLI BEHANA YOJANA
The latest scheme to target women voters entails a monthly payout of Rs 1,000 for women between the ages of 23 and 59. Payments will commence from June 2023. Right now, documentation and registration work is on

LADLI LAXMI 2.0
In November 2022, Shivraj Singh Chouhan announced an additional payment of Rs 25,000 to beneficiaries at the time of full maturity of the scheme

LOANS TO ALL-WOMEN SHGs
This year's budget provides Rs 660 crore for subsidising loans to eligible 357,499 all-women SHGs registered in the state. These SHGs cover 4.6 million families and work in 45,527 of the 51,527 villages of the state

CM KANYA VIVAH YOJANA
The amount payable to beneficiaries at the time of marriage has been hiked from Rs 51,000 to Rs 55,000

E- SCOOTIES
The state education department was earlier providing bicycles to students. Now, a new scheme has been introduced in the current budget to provide e-scooties to girls who top their respective schools in Class 12. Nearly 4,500 schools are affiliated to the MP Board whose toppers would to get the e-scooty at the end of the academic year