

CULTURE | NMACC

FOR THE ART AND SOUL

The recently opened Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre in Mumbai is a big fillip for visual and performing arts in India

By Suhani Singh

Enter the Bandra Kurla Complex in Mumbai and you cannot ignore the vast presence of Reliance Jio properties. There's the Jio World Garden where everyone from Arijit Singh and Prateek Kuhad to Ed Sheeran and Skrillex has performed; there's Jio World Drive, a mall with a host of luxury stores, eateries and even a drive-in theatre. Then, inside the 18.5-acre Jio World Centre, there's the Jio Convention Centre, which can host the finest and most grand exhibitions or trade shows, and the Fountain of Joy. Now, the sprawling site has another mega attraction: the Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre or the NMACC. Home to three auditoriums—the 2,000-seater Grand Theatre, the