women in respect of property held by a husband There will be a differential franchise for the Depressed Classes in order to enfranchise 10 per cent of their population The ratio of women to men voters will be about one to seven as compared with approximately one to twenty-one at the present time According to the White Paper, the Governor's provinces will have an average electorate of about 14 per cent of the total population or about 27 per cent of the adult population

Election to the seats allotted to the Sikhs, Moslems, Indian Christian, Anglo-Indian and European constituencies in the Provincial and the Federal Legislatures, will be by voters voting in separate communal electorates All qualified voters, who are not voters, in one of these constituencies, will be entitled to vote in a 'general' constituency Seats will be reserved for the Depressed Classes out of the 'general seats' as indicated in the following table, and the manner of election will be as prescribed in the Poona Pact namely on the basis of a common electorate embracing all section of Hindus subject to a primary election by voters of the Depressed Classes only Women's seats in the Assembly will be filled by the members of the Provincial Legislature voting by means of the single transferable vote, but the manner of election in the case of seats in the Provincial Legislatures is under consideration The seats allotted to Commerce and Industry and to Landholders will be filled by special constituencies The seats allotted to Labour will be filled from non-communal constituencies —partly trade-union and partly special constituencies The organisation of the Indian Christians and of women were emphatically opposed to separate communal electorate but their wishes have been ignored In Bengal and Punjab a statutory majority has been virtually provided for the majority community—the Moslems, without giving the Hindu minority representation according to their population such as the Moslem minorities in all provinces have received

The effect of the above provisions will be that the Provincial Assemblies will be constituted in the manner shown in the following table

The whole object of the Communal Award embodied in the White Paper seems to be to divide India still further, so that the effect of the meagre constitutional reforms may be sufficiently neutralised Attempt has been made to provide representation in
