Mahatma Gandhi would not have felt obliged to start the campaign of individual Civil Disobedience.

(3) The analysis and the forecast of the War made by the Forward Bloc have been proved to be correct.

(4) The propaganda and activities of the Forward Bloc have been responsible for inducing the Congress and Mahatma Gandhi to give the go-by to the original stand of the latter in September, 1939, with reference to the War and to return to the war-policy advocated by the Congress from 1927 to 1938.

(5) In building up the Left Movement, the Forward Bloc has clarified the issues which separate the Left from the Right and has stimulated the intellectual and ideological progress of the Congress.

(6) The Forward Bloc has been functioning as a watch-dog for warning the Congress and the country against any back-sliding on the part of any individual or party—particularly with reference to the major issues of the war-crisis and national struggle.

With reference to the future it may be confidently asserted :

(1) That the Forward Bloc will in the fulness of time succeed in establishing Leftist ascendency in the Congress so that the future progress of the latter may continue unhampered.

(2) It will prove to be the party of the future—the party that will give the proper lead in bringing the national movement to its fruition and will thereafter undertake the task of national reconstruction. Having sprung from the soil of India as a product of historical necessity and having at the same time the capacity to assimilate what is healthy and beneficial in the environment and in the world outside, it will be able to fulfil the dual role of conducting the National Struggle to its cherished goal and of building up a new India on the principles of liberty, equality and social justice.

(3) It will, by fulfilling its proper role, restore India to her proper and legitimate place in the comity of free nations.

(4) It will thereby enable India to play her historical role so that human progress may be taken a few stages beyond
