Why They Won

FUNNIEST YOUTUBER
Bhuvan Bam

After a six-month hiatus, he was back in action on his YouTube channel, BB Ki Vines, with a bang. The eight episodes of his debut series, Dhindora, got more than 300 million views. His relatable and clean humour has made him a favourite among both families and youth.

MOST INSPIRATIONAL PERFORMANCE OF THE YEAR
Ranveer Singh

He delivered a pitch-perfect performance playing Kapil Dev in the cricket drama '83. He brought alive all of Dev's essential attributes—self-belief, never-say-die spirit, ability to laugh at himself—and his role as a team leader.

MOST INSPIRING MUSICIAN
Jubin Nautiyal

With his melodious voice and soulful music, he has been on a roll and become one of the most acclaimed and sought-after artistes. His songs are some of the most viewed on YouTube and listened to on leading streaming platforms.

HAPPIEST OFFICE TO WORK IN
DHL Express India Private Limited

One of world's largest logistics companies, it introduced several programmes to ensure the well-being of its employees during the pandemic and encourage workplace camaraderie amidst the new normal.

BEST STAND-UP COMIC
Anubhav Singh Bassi

Born in Meerut and a lawyer by training, his career as a stand-up comic began after an open mic in 2017. The 31-year-old specialises in anecdotal comedy and has over 3 million subscribers on YouTube. His videos have got more than 300 million views.

MOST POSITIVE SOCIAL MEDIA INFLUENCER
Gaur Gopal Das

The monk in orange robes is a lifestyle coach and motivational speaker who delivers his profound messages in a conversational style. A former electrical engineer, he now has 4.2 million followers on YouTube.

DISTRICT MAGISTRATE WHO BROUGHT THE MOST HAPPINESS
Dr Shahid Iqbal Choudhary, IAS

Born to an ethnic Gujjar family in a remote village along the LoC in Jammu and Kashmir, he managed to effectively deal with the Covid pandemic in 2020 as District Magistrate of Srinagar.

MOST COMPASSIONATE HEALTHCARE PROVIDER
Max Smart Super Speciality Hospital, Saket

With more than 300 specialists and a strong nursing team, the hospital combines expertise with a healing touch to bring a smile to the faces of its patients and their families.