

HAPPIEST TOURIST DESTINATION
Agonda Beach, Goa

With very few tourists, no souvenir stalls and no restaurants, this South Goa beach is full of beautiful palm and casuarina trees lining the white sand. Also known as the Silent Beach of Goa, it is a nesting site for Olive Ridley turtles. A perfect getaway far from the milling crowds.

NGO THAT BROUGHT THE MOST HAPPINESS
Akshaya Patra Foundation

An empty stomach impedes a child's ability to learn. With footprints in 14 states and two UTs, the foundation serves mid-day meals to schoolchildren in collaboration with various government initiatives. Its motto: no child will be deprived of education due to hunger.

FUNNIEST OTT PERFORMANCE
Gullak 2 (TVF)

Everybody loves the Mishras thanks to winning performances by Jameel Khan, Geetanjali Kulkarni, Vaibhav Raj Gupta and Harsh Mayar as members of the endearing family. Sunita Rajwar as Bittu ki Mummy provides a generous dose of laughs as the talkative neighbour.

MOST INSPIRATIONAL OTT SERIES
Kota Factory (TVF)

Set in Kota, Rajasthan, the show on IIT aspirants offers life lessons without being preachy. Through amiable and diverse young characters such as Vaibhav and Meena, and words of wisdom from Jeetu Bhaiya, the creators tell students not to be too hard on themselves.

MOST INSPIRING SPORTSPERSON
P.V. Sindhu, Neeraj Chopra

The only Indian to have won two back-to-back Olympic medals, P.V. Sindhu is also the only shuttler from the country to win the world championship. Neeraj Chopra brought India its first Olympic medal in track and field events, which was also its second gold.

ANANT GOENKA
Managing Director, CEAT Limited

"If you want happiness for a lifetime, then help somebody. For centuries, the greatest thinkers have suggested that happiness lies in giving to others" shuttler P.V. Sindhu and athlete Neeraj Chopra as 'Most Inspiring Sportspersons', actor Ranveer Singh for the 'Most Inspirational Performance of the Year' in the film '83, motivational speaker Gaur Gopal Das as the 'Most Positive Social Media Influencer' and Bhuvan Bam as 'Funniest YouTuber'. The winners were selected after an exhaustive analysis by research agency MDRA.

Speaking on the occasion, Anant Goenka, MD of CEAT Limited, cited the five tenets of happiness from the most popular course at Harvard University (Positive Psychology, Spring of 2006). "The first is to give ourselves permission to be human, it's ok to have negative emotions. The second is exercise... Cultivate intimate, healthy relationships... Practise gratitude... And giving..."

Delhi was just apt for hosting the fest as its government has introduced a happiness curriculum in schools. Deputy CM Manish Sisodia, who was the chief guest and gave away awards to the winners, enthralled the audience with stories that are part of the curriculum. The message: happiness is found by looking within ourselves. Raj Chengappa, Group Editorial Director (Publishing), India Today Group, said, "We have interviewed psychiatrists who have studied changes in the brain when someone experiences happiness. One finding is that it is abnormal for anyone to be constantly happy without any basis."

The event marks the beginning of what we hope to be a journey of spreading happiness and showcasing the work of those who make this world a happier place. ■
