

IN

hemes. A
been ety.

Telangana Government has launched the unique Dalit Bandhu scheme to empower Dalits and ensure their comprehensive development.

A total of all 17 lakhs families will be benefited in a planned manner under the scheme.

During financial year of 2021- 2022 under the scheme, 40,000 Dalit families received financial support of Rs.4000 crore.

During 2022-23 financial year, it is proposed to provide Rs.17, 700 crore assistance to as many as 1.75 lakh Dalit families.

Telangana Government provided livelihood safety to destitute, senior citizens, widows, single women, weavers and toddy tappers and people living with AIDS with monthly Asara pensions of Rs.2016/-.

Physically challenged persons get pension of Rs.3016 per month, Beedi workers Rs.2016 per month, and patients suffering with Elephantiasis Rs.2016 per month are getting government assistance only in Telangana.

Towards wedding expenses of poor unmarried girls Telangana government provides Rs.1,00,116 lakh to each @ 11.44 lakh persons benefited so far.

36.32 lakh people benefit from Asara pensions

As part of dignity housing to poor, unique scheme of double bed room houses (DBR) was introduced wherein so far 2.91 lakh DBR houses worth of Rs.19.126 crore are being built.

Government program implemented to provide Rs.3 lakhs assistance to build DBR in their own lands.

Food safety ensured for all poor with 6 kgs of free rice per head to all white ration card holders in the state.

For shepherds Telangana Government providing free sheep. So far 7.3 lakh units at cost of Rs.11,000 crore were sanctioned. Rs.1000 crore allocated in 2022-23 budget for sheep distribution.

Telangana government provided Rs.4/- as incentive on milk per litre to promote milk production in the state.

For benefit of Goud brothers, Telangana government evaded old arrears on palm tree cess and also cancelled palm tree cess permanently.

Government also hiked the compensation for handicapped or deceased toddy tappers from Rs.50,000 to Rs.5 lakhs.

For weavers government provided Rs.5 lakh insurance coverage and also paid premium besides bank loan clearance up to Rs.50,000 and 50% rebate in yarn and dyes. And also buying all sarees for bathukamma festival from handloom weavers.

Government also promoting a mega Kakatiya textile park in Warangal to promote job prospects of handloom weavers.

Works are on full swing for Apparel Park at Warangal and weaving park at Siricilla.

Dhobi Ghat, Laundry, Saloons of Nayibrahmins are given 250 units of free power per month.

Government is allocating land to all communities in the state capital to build community Bhavans.

10,000 Imams and Mouzams are being given Rs.5000 as monthly honorarium.

Government celebrating major festivals like Bathukamma, Bonalu, Ramzan and Christmas officially in a befitting manner.

Government distributed sarees for Bathukamma festival and new clothes to poor minorities during Ramzan and Christmas season.

Government officially celebrating Banjara tribal Sevalal Maharaj Jayanti and Komaram Bheem Jayanti. Spent Rs.322 crore for Sammakka and Saralammajatara in four phases with special funding for Nagoba, Jangubai, Baurwnpur, Erukala Nancharamma festivities.

Government building 32 Girijan Bhavans all over the state out of which Banjara Bhavan and Adivasi Bhavan at Hyderabad are completed.

Telangana is the only state which is providing 5% quota in liquor shop licenses to STs and benefitted around 131 tribals in first phase.

Telangana is the only state which withdrew transport tax on auto rickshaws.

For the benefit of poor brahmins, a BrahminParishad was set up providing scholarships, subsidised loans and a Brahmin Sadan built at Hyderabad at Rs.10 crore.

Priest and other temple employees are being paid promptly every month through grant in aid.

Unparalleled in country, Telangana government has set up Rs.100 crore fund for advocates welfare and also Rs.100 crore for journalists' welfare.

During the last eight years Telangana Government has provided 1.33 lakh government jobs and also amended presidential order to ensure 95% jobs to locals only. In another record achievement, government has begun appointments of another 1 lakh jobs at a time.

A GOLDEN CHAPTER IN WELFARE FOR ALL IN THE STATE