

HARVEST ABUNDANT - FARMER EMPOWERED IN TELANGANA

Agriculture play a critical role in transformation of the economies. It is interlinked in many of the state's goals like quality of life for the farmers who has seen worst in the past and agriculture output. Rapid strides in agriculture brought about changes including food security and improving nutrition.

The Telangana government introduced a slew of aggressive reforms from water for irrigation to the semi-arid land with life irrigation projects to buying of the crop after harvest. Telangana government, unheard of anywhere in the country began with providing 24 x 7 quality free power to agriculture sector in the state.

Telangana is the first state in the country to introduce Rythu Bandhu scheme providing crop input assistance to the tune of Rs.10,000 per acre in an year. In the last eight seasons the Telangana government has assisted 63 lakh farmers with Rs.50,448 crore.

Introduced Rythu Bima scheme to support farmers families in the event of farmers accidental death with 100% premium paid by government and claims settlement within 10 days of death through LIC to the tune of Rs.5 lakhs. Government insurance money has reached 80,600 affected farmer families.

Telangana government has also given debt relief of Rs.22, 000 crores to 41.46 lakh farmers.

Telangana is the only state in the country which has rescinded water cess arrears and also permanently withdrawn the water tax and farmers enjoy free water for their lands from all irrigation projects in the state.

Telangana has emerged as Annapurna of the country with production of record 2.18 crore tonnes of paddy.

Agricultural production has increased by eight times in last eight years and Telangana share in food production is on par with Punjab.

Telangana is the only state to set up 7000 purchase centres and buy all grains produced by farmers this season.

In the cotton production sector Telangana has topped the country.

Fertilisers and seeds are made available to farmers on time.

Telangana is the first state in the country to verify seeds online to facilitate farmers.

Telangana government has comedown heavily on suppliers of contraband and adulterated seeds and slapped PD act on such traders.

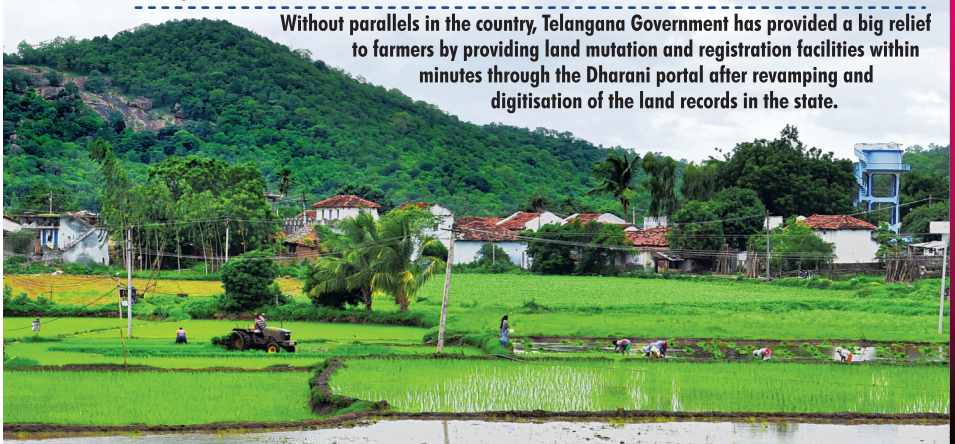

The capacity of godowns storage has been increased from 9.9 lakh tonnes to 31.9 lakh tonnes in Telangana.

Government has appointed Agriculture Extension Officers to support farmers by dividing entire agricultural land in the state into 2601 clusters of five acres each.

Government encouraged micro-irrigation, sprinkler systems, poly house and green house farming.

Telangana is only state to suspend transport tax on tractor, trolley etc.

Without parallels in the country, Telangana Government has provided a big relief to farmers by providing land mutation and registration facilities within minutes through the Dharani portal after revamping and digitisation of the land records in the state.

HARVEST ABUNDANT - FARMER EMPOWERED IN TELANGANA