Inspiring people and commitment to save the environment from the dangers of climate change and global warming is everyone's responsibility. Planting trees is not just about planting a mere sapling, it's about contributing our part to save the earth, leaving healthy earth and land for the coming generations.

Shri Shivraj Singh Chouhan
Chief Minister, Madhya Pradesh