

RAZORPAY

Harshil Mathur, 31
Shashank Kumar, 30
Co-founders

WHY IT MADE NEWS

- At $8 billion, Razorpay is India's second most valuable fintech startup
- The firm grew 40-45 per cent month-on-month after an initial dip in the first three months of the pandemic

INDIA'S MOST VALUABLE UNICORNS

India's top unicorns represent a mix of sectors including edtech, fintech, e-commerce, gaming, food tech and others

Byju's Edtech 21	InMobi Adtech 12	OYO Shared economy 10
Dream11 Gaming 8	Razorpay Fintech 8	Ola Shared economy 7
PharmEasy Healthtech 6	Swiggy On-demand delivery 6	OfBusiness Fintech 5
BrowserStack SaaS 4	CRED Fintech 4	Meesho E-commerce 4
Zerodha Fintech 4

Figuresin $ billion; valuations of firms

Source: Hurun List of Unicorns

reasons for the surge in IPOs, including the low interest rate regime, the stimulus offered by the Centre and the RBI (Reserve Bank of India) and the fact that India's vaccination drive has so far covered nearly half of the eligible population with two doses. There has also been a boom in new investors—according to an SBI (State Bank of India) report, 14.2 million new investors entered the stock markets in 2020-21.

It was in the second half of 2021 that the four unicorns tapped the stock markets. Paytm raised Rs 18,500 crore from its IPO, Zomato raised Rs 9,375 crore, Nykaa Rs 5,351.91 crore and Policy Bazaar, Rs 5,625 crore. Other than Paytm, which saw a comparatively lukewarm response (despite the large overall figure, it was oversubscribed only 1.89 times), all were well received. Of these, the Deepinder Goyal-founded Zomato and Falguni Nayar-founded Nykaa stood out—Zomato's IPO was oversubscribed 40.38 times, creating a demand for shares worth Rs 2.13 lakh crore, the third highest in the history of the stock markets after Reliance Power's IPO in 2008 and