< INHALE, EXHALE
Aryan Khan at the NCB office, Nov. 12

WHY THE CASE AGAINST ARYAN KHAN COLLAPSED

- The NCB could not provide evidence that Aryan Khan and Arbaaz Merchant had conspired to supply drugs to the alleged rave party
- It could not even prove that Aryan was in posession of drugs or had consumed it
- The NCB had not carried out a medical examination of the accused to prove drug consumption, a fact pointed out by the court
- The Bombay High Court held that Aryan's confession statement was inadmissible
- The HC ruled that it found "nothing objectionable" in Aryan's WhatsApp chats, says it was inadmissible as evidence

NCB's Sameer Wankhede