

REUTERS

AFP

SELF-INFLICTED WOUNDS

On December 6, hundreds of mourners gathered in Nagaland's Mon district for the funeral of 14 citizens killed by Indian special forces two days prior in a series of botched actions that began with the army mistaking innocent civilians for insurgents