TOP RESHUFFLES

In 2021, Uttarakhand, Gujarat, Karnataka and Punjab all saw leadership changes as a result of party diktats. However, there were notable differences in how the BJP and Congress high commands handled these. BJP-led Uttarakhand had three chief ministers over six months, including the incumbent Pushkar Singh Dhami, while in Karnataka, Basavaraj Bommai replaced veteran B. S. Yediyurappa. In Gujarat, Vijay Rupani made way for debutant MLA Bhupendrabhai Patel. In contrast, Congress-led Punjab saw a bitter public feud between outgoing Chief Minister Amarinder Singh and Punjab Pradesh Congress Committee Chief Navjot Sidhu which resulted in Charanjit Singh Channi becoming chief minister
