The BJP's relative unpopularity among women voters continues: 29 per cent women voted for BJP as opposed to 33 per cent men. In 2009, the difference between the two was two percentage points; had only women voted, the BJP may have fallen short of majority.

Year	Women–Men voting gap for BJP (percentage points)	Women–Men voting gap for Congress (percentage points)
1996	-3	+1
1998	-5	+3
1999	-3	+5
2004	-1	+1
2009	-2	+1
2014	-4	0

Source: National Election Studies conducted by CSDS

Modi was preferred as PM among the young voters much more than among the elderly.

Age Group (years)	Want Narendra Modi as PM (%)	Want Rahul Gandhi as PM (%)
18–25	42	16
26–35	38	15
36+	32	14

Source: National Election Studies, 2014, conducted by CSDS

The BJP's lead over the Congress in terms of votes secured was least among the elderly voters aged above 55 years (eight percentage points) and greatest among the youngest voters aged between 18 and 22 years (nineteen percentage points).