Year/Government	Should the Central govt get another chance?
	YES	NO
2004/NDA	48	30
2009/UPA-I	54	45
2014/UPA-II	23	54

Source: National Election Studies conducted by CSDS

Price rise, corruption and a desire for development seem to have been the reasons for strong anti-incumbency against the UPA-II government.

	Single most important election issue (answers to an open-ended question)
	Inflation (%)	Development (%)	Corruption (%)	Employment (%)
July 2013	11	9	6	5
Jan 2014	18	9	7	6
March 2014	19	15	12	7
April 2014	19	17	12	8

Source: National Election Tracker surveys, 2013–14, and National Election Studies, 2014, conducted by Lokniti, CSDS

Price rise perhaps made the BJP overtake the Congress for the first time among the poor.

Year	Poor for BJP (%)	Poor for Cong (5)	BJP lead over Congress among the Poor (% points)
1999	20	29	-9
2004	19	26	-7
2009	15	26	-11
2014	24	20	+4

Source: National Election Studies conducted by CSDS

UPA-II was seen as a very corrupt government by 45 per cent of the respondents, up from 34 per cent in 2013.