How corrupt is the UPA-II government?	2011	2013	Jan 2014	Mar 2014
Very corrupt	28	34	45	41
Somewhat corrupt	42	42	30	32
Not at all corrupt	5	4	6	8
Can't say/No opinion	25	20	19	19

Source: State of the Nation survey, 2011, and National Election Tracker surveys, 2013–14 , conducted by Lokniti, CSDS

Some more points based on Election Commission of India (ECI) figures:

Out of the 432 seats which AAP contested, in 414 the party's candidates secured less than one-sixth of the total votes polled, hence losing their security deposit.

AAP candidates secured less than one per cent of the total votes polled in as many as 265 seats. In other words, in a little over three out of five seats that the AAP contested, the party could not even secure one per cent of the votes.

Number of seats where AAP vote share was . . .
Less than 16.66% (lost security deposits)	414
Less than 10 per%	411
Less than 5%	397
Less than 2%	355
Less than 1%	265
Less than NOTA vote share	260

ECI data recomputed by CSDS Data Unit

Some more points based on survey figures:

Narendra Modi's popularity (people's preference as PM) was greatest among the youngest voters (43 per cent) and relatively much less among the elderly voters (30 per cent). Modi's lead over Rahul Gandhi was also the