The roads and rivers of Sindh were opened to British trade by a treaty in 1832. The chiefs of Sindh, known as Amirs, were made to sign a Subsidiary Treaty in 1839. And finally, in spite of previous assurances that its territorial integrity would be respected, Sindh was annexed in 1843 after a brief campaign by Sir Charles Napier who had earlier written in his diary: "We have no right to seize Sind, yet we shall do so, and a very advantageous, useful humane piece of rascality it will be". He received seven lakhs of rupees as prize money for accomplishing the task.
