ACHIEVERS

LIPIKA SINGH DARAI, 38

Film director, Ho tribe

Her first non-fiction film Eka Gachha Eka Manisa Eka Samudra (A Tree, A Man, A Sea) won the National Award in 2013 for Best Debutante Director in the non-feature section. Born in Mayurbhanj district, Darai graduated from FTII, Pune, in sound recording and design. She is the recipient of four National Awards—three for film direction and one for sound recording and mixing. Her latest documentary, Backstage (2021), featured the puppeteer community of Odisha.

"BEING AN ADIVASI IN INDIA MEANS TO LIVE UNDER THE BURDEN OF A MISREPRESENTED HISTORY AND, OFTEN, A MISQUOTED IDENTITY"

ARABINDA MAHAPATRA

"TRIBALS ARE SEEN AS FOREST-DWELLERS OR HUNTERS. THAT PERCEPTION SHOULD CHANGE. THEN EVERYTHING ELSE WILL FALL INTO PLACE"