vacant faculty posts as soon as possible. We have some of the best teachers in their fields and there is a strong focus to motivate and nurture them," adds Kumaraswamy.

The agitations of 2019 already seem a distant memory. Pandit hopes to turn the fund deficit she started with into a huge surplus before she leaves. And with the revenue she generates, the plan is to strengthen not just the infrastructure but also bring in more research collaborations, learning opportunities and diversity to the university. With such a thrust on overall development, retaining the numero uno position is just a walk in the campus! ■
