ity to students while maintaining all Covid-appropriate protocols. "Theory classes were conducted in a post-lunch session on the Webex portal once students reached home after finishing their in-person practicals," says Pant. While in-person extra weekend classes were conducted after the third wave of Covid, regular research was also conducted on various core areas in a phased manner.

The placement records are another indication that the buzz is back on campus. There were more than 25 companies on campus and placements were conducted in hybrid mode, online and in-person too. Out of the total strength of 240 students, around 110 sat for placements. Of these, 84 students got placed in various hotels, e-commerce companies, the retail sector, facility planning companies and hospitals. The starting salary range varied between Rs 2 lakh per annum and Rs 7.5 lakh per annum. ■
