"From their first year, students get an understanding of integrating industry projects with learning. Through field work and internships, they explore issues, applying classroom knowledge to real-life problems"

MANISHA KINNU
Campus Director, NIFT Delhi

its philosophy of progressive thinking. During the pandemic and now, this ideology has kept us afloat." Students are encouraged to think differently within a pragmatic frame and the institute has re-engineered design thinking, technical innovation and business strategy to develop a distinctive approach.

Some changes the institute has adopted recently include a format of majors, deepening specialisations, minors and general electives. Interdisciplinary minors will allow students to acquire skill sets and opt for subjects that complement studies in one's major or explore an unrelated area of intellectual interest. The Craft Cluster Initiative has been integrated into the curriculum, and increased industry interaction through classroom projects and internships is a focus area.

NIFT Delhi has filed for patent applications for the needle replacement system, or the instant needle mounting
