opportunities, infrastructure, innovation and training. No one can put it better than Dr Guleria, who has been associated with AIIMS since childhood as his father, J.S. Guleria, was a former dean here: "AIIMS has always focused on training doctors for the future," he says. "Today, that means focus on communication skills, life skills, medical ethics, modern technology and innovation." Asked why AIIMS occupies a permanent place at the pinnacle of medical education in the country, he elaborates: "Modern medicine is no longer about learning facts—indeed, those are now available on Google. Modern medicine is about asking

Learning from their experience of treating Covid patients, AIIMS students and staff put together the lessons in several webinars in partnership with the MoHFW
