LLOYD TRIAL ADVOCACY CELL

Legal education system all over the world face the dilemma of bridging the gap that exists between law as it is taught inside the classroom and law as it is practiced in the courtroom. Lloyd Trial Advocacy Competition (LTAC) is a revolutionary step towards bringing the learning experience of law as near to its actual practice as possible. L-TAC is a teaching tool developed to teach criminal trial. Students learn the nuances of criminal trail by actually conducting a trail of an imaginary case that they formulate and prosecute before a real – life court setting and the efforts put by the LTAC team is reflected in the achievements of our students. Our students participated in 7th Symbiosis International Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition, 2022 and emerged as Runner Up and also won Best Memorial & Best Speaker of Finals.
