Gender Equality:
50 per cent Seats reserved for Girls

In a bid to promote equal learning opportunities free from gender-based discrimination, 50 per cents seats in Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools have been reserved for girls. The seat reserved for girls will be allotted to boys only in case they are left vacant. In this scenario as well, children belonging to economically weaker sections will be given priority for admission to these schools.

Empowering the Poor:
25 per cent seats reserved for BPL students

25 per cent of the seats in these schools will be reserved for students belonging to the BPL category. In case, the applications outnumber the seats available, students will be selected through lottery system. Apart from this, a total of two seats have been reserved for the beneficiaries of 'Mahtari Dular Yojana'.

Morpalli Village:
A symbol of Strength, Hope & Positivity

School building constructed in the same place where Naxalites destroyed it back in 2005

Morpalli village in Sukma district is among the hundreds of villages that were destroyed by the Naxalites during the 'Salwa-Judum' movement in 2005. The school building which was back in the day demolished by the Naxalites has now been re-constructed. Moreover, the village now has internet connectivity. These are the positive outcomes of the change in course of action, the active administration, and the efforts being made by the Bhupesh Baghel-led Congress government for the development of Naxal-affected areas in Chhattisgarh. There was great enthusiasm among villagers and children with the re-opening of schools in the area. They were also happy to learn and place a video call for the first time.

The Game-Changer Initiative:
Vocational Education along with the School Education

Chhattisgarh Board of Secondary Education and State Council for Vocational Training has jointly started a combined course for ITI Vocational Courses along with the higher secondary studies to up-skill students. The two-year ITI vocational courses will be conducted simultaneously with the studies of classes 11th and 12th.

Students, who clear 12th board exams, will be awarded ITI certificate along with pass certificates. The special initiative of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel will prove to be a game-changer in bringing a big and comprehensive change in the field of school education in Chhattisgarh.

Chief Minister has directed the ministers and the officers of the Department of School Education and Technical Education to implement such combined course in the schools across Chhattisgarh. Besides the basic school education, students will now become skilled and contribute in building 'Nava Chhattisgarh' (new Chhattisgarh).

Hotel Management Skills for the Youth in Mining affected areas

Free admission to 10 youths in State Hotel Management Institute using DMF fund

Chhattisgarh has natural scenic beauty and rich cultural heritage that offers tremendous tourism opportunity here. Therefore, there is always a requirement for skilled youth in government motels and private hotels. Hence, Hotel Management Courses make the youth more employable for these wonderful employment opportunities. The state government has taken an initiative to connect 12th pass underprivileged students of mining-affected areas with employment by getting them admission in the State Institute of Hotel Management.

A total of 10 youths hailing from Korba district will pursue hotel management courses with the aid of the state government. All expenses including tuition, hostel and mess fee will be borne by the district administration from DMF fund. For three courses of Hotel Management, Rs 29 lakh 64 thousand 200 will be spent from DMF fund for the entire course.
