BROTHERS IN FRAUD

SEVENTEEN INDIAN BANKS WERE ALLEGEDLY DEFRAUDED OF Rs 34,615 CRORE BY DHFL, RUN BY THE WADHAWAN BROTHERS. IT'S ANOTHER SORRY CHAPTER IN THE ONGOING SAGA OF THE GREAT INDIAN BANK ROBBERY

By M.G. Arun

Not too long ago, brothers Kapil and Dheeraj Wadhawan, 49 and 44, respectively, and the promoters of the Mumbai-based NBFC (non-banking financial company) DHFL, were the toast of the Mumbai corporate circuit. Armed with an MBA degree from Edith Cowan University in Australia, Kapil had joined the family's real estate financing business, called Dewan Housing Finance Limited at the time, in 1997, and together with brother Dheeraj, oversaw a big turnaround in its fortunes. From sales revenues of roughly Rs 100 crore and profits of just Rs 16 crore when Kapil took over, the business grew to Rs 10,826 crore in revenues by 2016-17, with a net profit
