

BAKSHISH DEAN, 51

Chef and hospitality industry veteran, Delhi

Dreams fulfilled

Went on close to 20 holidays, including to Dubai, Sri Lanka and the Maldives; bought an SUV way above his budget

How Covid changed me

"As messages of death and disease became more commonplace, I realised we don't have as much time as we think we do. The pandemic is a high price to pay to arrive at the realisation, but it's all about being bold and daring to take that first step"