▲ DEBATE: EMERGING WOMAN POWER—DO SUCCESSFUL WOMEN INTIMIDATE MEN?

TAKEAWAYS

1. "Men getting intimidated by successful women may have been a thing in the past... No one is intimidated but people do have prejudices"
2. "Recruiters consider a male candidate because they think he won't take maternity leave and will be more stable. One has to just work harder"
3. "A male member under me resigned because he could not take instructions from a woman.... Initially, I would alter my behaviour to suit their perspective but then I realised it wasn't helping"
4. "One gets intimidated only when one is not confident. Confident people never get intimidated"
