

GETTY IMAGES

THE MINORITY UNIVERSE

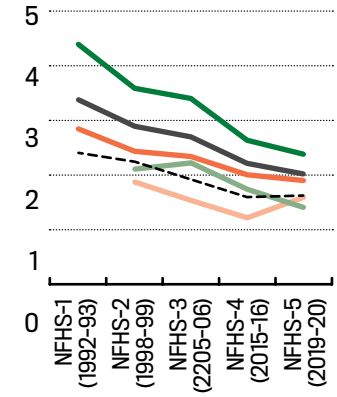

Six notified minority communities—Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhists, Jains and Parsis—constitute around 20 per cent of India's population

● Share of total population in 1951 ● Share of total population in 2011

THE GROWTH BALANCE

Muslims, the one minority group that registered a notable increase in share of population since 1951, have also seen the steepest fall in fertility rates among all groups since 1991

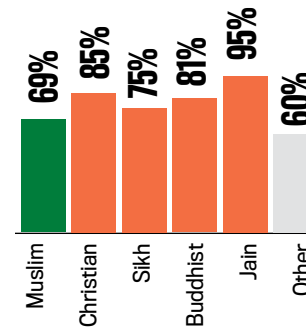

Muslim Christian
Sikh Buddhist Jain
-- National average

90 districts, 710 blocks and 66 towns have been identified for focused development of minorities. Various studies have shown Muslims to be lagging on socio-economic indices.

EDUCATION AND WORK

Among the minorities, Muslims have the lowest literacy and work participation rate; but in terms of unemployment, Christians fare the worst

LITERACY RATE 2011

WORK PARTICIPATION RATE 2011 CENSUS

UNEMPLOYMENT RATE 2017-18

MUSLIM	SIKH
6.7%	6.4%
5.7%	5.7%
7.5%	7.2%
14.5%	16.9%

CHRISTIAN	NATIONAL AVERAGE
6.9%	5.8%
8.8%	3.8%
8.9%	7.1%
15.6%	10.8%

● Rural male ● Rural female
● Urban male ● Urban female

Source: Religion-specific data was submitted in Lok Sabha in 2019 by Ministry of Minority Affairs, based on Annual Report PLFS, 2017-18, and data from Ministry of Labour and Employment