

GETTY IMAGES

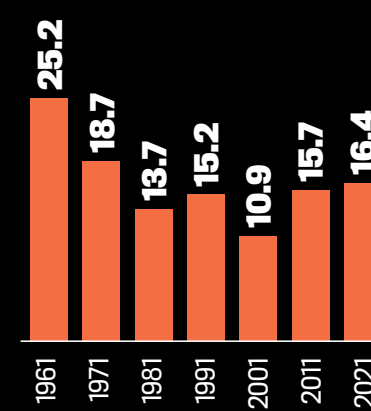

END TO HUNGER
India is now self-sufficient in sugar and foodgrains. Interestingly, while rice production has remained static, wheat production has been growing steadily, indicating more people are eating rotis. The production of pulses and oils, however, need a boost.

CEREALS
(Per capita net availability in kg/ year)

Source: Union ministry of agriculture

PULSES
(Per capita net availability in kg/ year)

Source: Union Ministry of Agriculture