

GRAND EDIFICES
The Great Eastern Hotel in Calcutta in the 19th century; (right) ITC Royal Bengal in Kolkata now

THE FORCE MULTIPLIERS

The services sector has been instrumental in powering India's growth in the past two decades, including in exports

By Shwweta Punj

The growth in the services sector largely began after the reforms of 1991. Liberalisation, removal of FDI restrictions, easier approvals and so on led to the sector's growth broadly classified under