THE CITIZEN

16 WE THE PEOPLE
What have 75 years of Independence meant for the aam aadmi? Has the nation fulfilled her apirations?

ANI

INFRASTRUCTURE

44 ON THE FAST TRACK
Despite its poor financial health, Indian Railways aims to match global standards in the next 25 years

46 SCORCHING PACE
With construction picking up, India now has the world's second largest road network is the world's second-largest telecommunications market with 1,200 million telephone subscribers

70 POWER SURGE
India's power generating capacity has jumped to 403,760 MW from a mere 1,342 MW in 1947

MANDAR DEODHAR

50 TURNING THE TIDE
The government plans to revive old waterways to build a robust inland and maritime transportation network

52 IN CRUISE CONTROL
Indian civil aviation is taking off, albeit slowly, to catch up with its global peers

67 RINGING IN THE NEW
India had 150,000 telephone exchange lines in 1947. Now it

72 SLIPPING ON OIL
India's import bill rises due to dipping domestic crude production

74 CITIES UNDER STRESS
With rapid urbanisation, 50 per cent of Indians are likely to live in cities by 2050

76 LOW WATER MARK
Classified as 'water scarce', India is staring at a crisis that needs urgent attention

THE ECONOMY

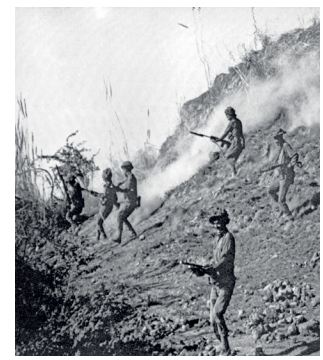

32 BREAKING THE SHACKLES
The challenge now for the manufacturing sector is to be globally competitive

34 THE FORCE MULTIPLIERS
The services sector has emerged as a key lever driving the economy

36 GRAIN REVOLUTION
Agriculture's journey to self-sufficiency and surplus is a story of many reverses and many milestones achieved

RAJWANT RAWAT

AFP

SECURITY

82 MORE BANG FOR THE BUCK
Having proven themselves in battle, the Indian armed forces are today one of the world's most modern militaries

84 KHAKI BLUES
The police's difficult role has been rendered tougher due to lack of reform

SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

92 STELLAR SHOW
The Indian space programme is now among the world's most accomplished

94 FISSION FEATS
India's atomic journey enabled nuclear deterrence but failed to deliver on the promise of an energy revolution

96 HONING OUR DEFENCES
DRDO has helped the country improve its indigenous defence capabilities

98 ORGANIC GROWTH
The sunrise sector shines bright as India taps into early-mover advantage in biotechnology