CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

ENVIRONMENT

106 A NEW LEAF
The twin pressures of population and development are taking a toll on forests

108 EARNING OUR STRIPES
Much of our wildlife was once treated as big game. With the creation of many national parks, wildlife protection is now a principle India lives by

110 WASTE DEEP
Anti-pollution laws are treated with mass apathy. What we need is a push towards compliance

GETTY IMAGES

HEALTH

114 FEELING BETTER
The spectacular progress on many fronts alerts us to the stark gaps in India's healthcare system

SIPRA DAS

JUDICIARY

120 TIME & PUNISHMENT
The judiciary remains our democracy's most trusted pillar but the pursuit of justice is painfully slow for the underprivileged

CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

DEMOCRACY

124 DANCE OF DEMOCRACY
Met with too little trust or too much, the Indian political party presents a stained mirror to the demotic will

128 REGIONS, LEGIONS
Historically viewed by the Centre with wariness, states score on both policy innovation and democratic dialogue-making

ENTERTAINMENT

132 FROM SCREENING TO STREAMING
From the black-and-white era to the OTT surge, Indian cinema has traversed a long road

136 DESTINATION INDIA
The tourism sector was hit hard by the pandemic and is now on a slow path to recovery

GETTY IMAGES

SOCIETY

138 HALF THE SKY
For Indian women, freedom has been about trying to breathe life into a mirage

140 THE SOCIAL ARC
At the core of Indian society, the family retains its salience

142 MINORITY RAPPORT
Delicate at the best of times, and often volatile, India needs to de-escalate the politics and focus on uniform welfare

INDIA PICTURE

THE ARTS

146 TUGGING AT A NATION'S HEARTSTRINGS
The changing face of Indian music from state patronage to streaming

148 IN STEP WITH TIME
How the nation's dance vocabulary expanded from Indian classical dance forms to include western styles