Preface to the Fourth Edition

The Civil Services Examination conducted by UPSC(Union public Service Commission) has become more dynamic and challenging in recent years. This proactive and evolving nature of exam is intended to select the best minds who can quickly adapt to unpredictability and solve questions to arrive at right and most relevant solutions without losing their nerves. This book is therefore a modest attempt to present a unique collection of high-quality objective questions on basic concepts of Geography and Applied Geography. It is based on the corresponding title, 'Indian and World Geography' and has an exhaustive list of questions incorporating the current happening in the domain of Geography.

New to 4th edition:

1. Complete restructuring based on the latest examination pattern
2. Book is divided into four parts: World Geography, Indian Geography, Practise Test Papers and Previous Years' Question Papers
3. Topic wise and subtopic wise classification of questions for easy revision
4. Questions have been classified as per the level of difficulty
5. Previous year questions with detailed explanations with relevant value addition for the examination for the last 10 years
6. Revised Practice set Question papers with current trend

I am extremely overwhelmed to be associated with Prof. Majid Husain. He has been my guiding light, inspiration and a motivation to keep going with the positive spirit in life.

I would like to thank the McGraw-Hill team, Ms Shukti Mukherjee, Ms Jyoti Nagpal, Ms Shreya Soni and Mr Dharmender Sharma for their constant support.
