6. The Yangtze River is the longest river in Asia, and the fourth longest in the world at 3915 miles (6301 km).
7. The Northeast China Plain, also known as the Manchurian Plain, is located in Northeast China.It lies between the Greater and Lesser Khingan and Changbai mountains.
8. Dead Sea at an elevation of -1,401 feet below sea level is the absolute lowest point on the earth. Its surface and coastline border has Israel to its west and Jordan to its east
9. This is Huangguoshu Waterfall, the largest waterfall in Asia. Located in the southwestern Chinese province of Guizhou, Huangguoshu (Yellow Fruit Tree) Waterfall is this poor province's pride and joy, its key tourist attraction.
10. Positioned in far-western Asia, just to the east of the Caspian Sea, the Aral Sea is located in the countries of Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan
11. The Ural Mountains and the Caucasus Mountains separate Europe from Asia.
12. Since Victorian times, they have been known as the "Roof of the World".
13. In total there are seven countries that India shares its borders with. In other words it can be said that there are seven neighbouring countries of India. These countries from east to west are Myanmar, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal, China, Afghanistan (only official claim, not on actual grounds) and Pakistan.
14. Lake Baikal in southern Russia is the world's deepest lake. It is an estimated 5387 feet deep (1642 meters), and its bottom is approximately 3893 feet (1187 meters) below sea level. Lake Baikal is also the world's largest freshwater lake in terms of volume.
15. The Rub'al Khali is the sand desert encompassing most of the southern third of the Arabian Peninsula. The desert covers some 650,000 km^2 including parts of Saudi Arabia, Oman, the United Arab Emirates, and Yemen. It is part of the larger Arabian Desert.
16. Thailand is called the country of white elephants due to the large population of white elephants found within the country.
17. Longest railway platforms in the World lies in Asia: Gorakhpur railway station, Uttar Pradesh, India (1366.33 m) (4483 ft.) is the