

36. Statement 1: CORRECT—Polynesia is a subregion of Oceania, made up of more than 1000 islands scattered over the central and southern Pacific Ocean. Statement 2: CORRECT—The largest country in Polynesia is New Zealand.
(See Figure)

37.
- Mekong River finally discharges into the South China Sea.
- Yellow river originates in the Bayankala Mountains in Western China at the Qinghai Province. Flowing through nine provinces, the mouth of the river empties into the Bohai Sea.
- Amu Darya river flowed into the Aral Sea

38. The Golden Triangle is the area where the borders of Thailand, Laos and Myanmar meet at the confluence of the Ruak and Mekong rivers. Most of the world's heroin came from the Golden Triangle.

39. The Golden Crescent region of South Asia— comprising Afghanistan, Iran and Pakistan—is a principal global site for opium production and distribution. Over the past few decades, war, terrorism, and a shifting political landscape have facilitated an active heroin trade throughout the region.